Barbara,

A Closing Thought

"Did you ever stop to think
What makes a day seem bright?
It isn't just the bright sunshine,
Though, of course, that helps, all right.
It's not just meeting friends you like,
Exchanging news and jokes;
No, sir, it's the little thoughtful things
You've done for other folks."

Thanks You For Everything!!!

"don't let the best you have ever done be the standard for the rest of your life.

God Bless—

Marshall N. Cohen

barbara,
i can't really
dig your personality
but not you
cudda-cudda, happy birthday! i'm so excited chicken and a toad thanks nam - ive had plenty remember all the fun we had doing Wizard and hole - and camelot
and never ive
went to competition
ill always love you even if i die. luck be with you for the next 75 years & god bless you. Love,

It been great knowing you this year. (We really known who you were since Jr. High but just became friends with you this year.) May the best of luck be with you, you deserve it.
Vicki Owens.

Barbara
We've both been around for a long time. Remember me from 6th grade on.
I'm glad we've had a chance to get to know each other again in our senior year.
Be as quick as you are and as friendly, funny + happy. Thanks for being around.
Bless you
Bob Tibble

Barbara,
You're one of the sweetest girls I know. I've been friend and I hope to see you in the future.
Good luck in a good future
Lovel
Bob Tibble

Well its been fun having you in classes with me. But it still don't know how you skiped or mucked your way through. Be successful in everything you do. Be good and remember "Follow the yellow brick road". Yeah Respus and all that rot.
Love ya,
Kathy Ehrlich

Barbara,
I could write pages and pages about you and what our friendship means to me but I'll refrain myself. We've become close friends in a short period of time but I believe we're become very, very close friends. Best of luck to a wonderful person. I know you'll succeed in everything you do because that's the type of person you are. Be good and remember "Follow the yellow brick road". Yeah
Respus and all that rot.
Love ya,
Kathy Ehrlich

P.S. I expect you to write something just as nice in my yearbook!

Barb, I got so excited when I got hold of your yearbook! I got hold of your yearbook! all seriousness aside, I have been a great friend all year. I'm glad you were always on "my side." I'm going to miss you an awful lot. Please keep in contact. Luv ya very much
Bob Ferri

P.S. CUDA CUDA
P.S.S. I know I didn't write much but I'm the strong, silent type.

Barb,
I've only known you this year and you have helped make my senior year a very beautiful year that I will never forget. I hope I see you after graduation. Good luck and God bless you.
Love,
Bill Fritzius

Barb,
You are a great and wonderful person! I hope and wish all the luck in the future! Keep up with the Drama, don't let it slip away, its a great, wonderful thing and I think its part of you!
Love,
Ernie

Barbara,
I'm the director of the year. I hope you succeed in all your ambitions. Never forget the good times in art! Good luck and god bless you always,
Love, Laura Sriai Schum

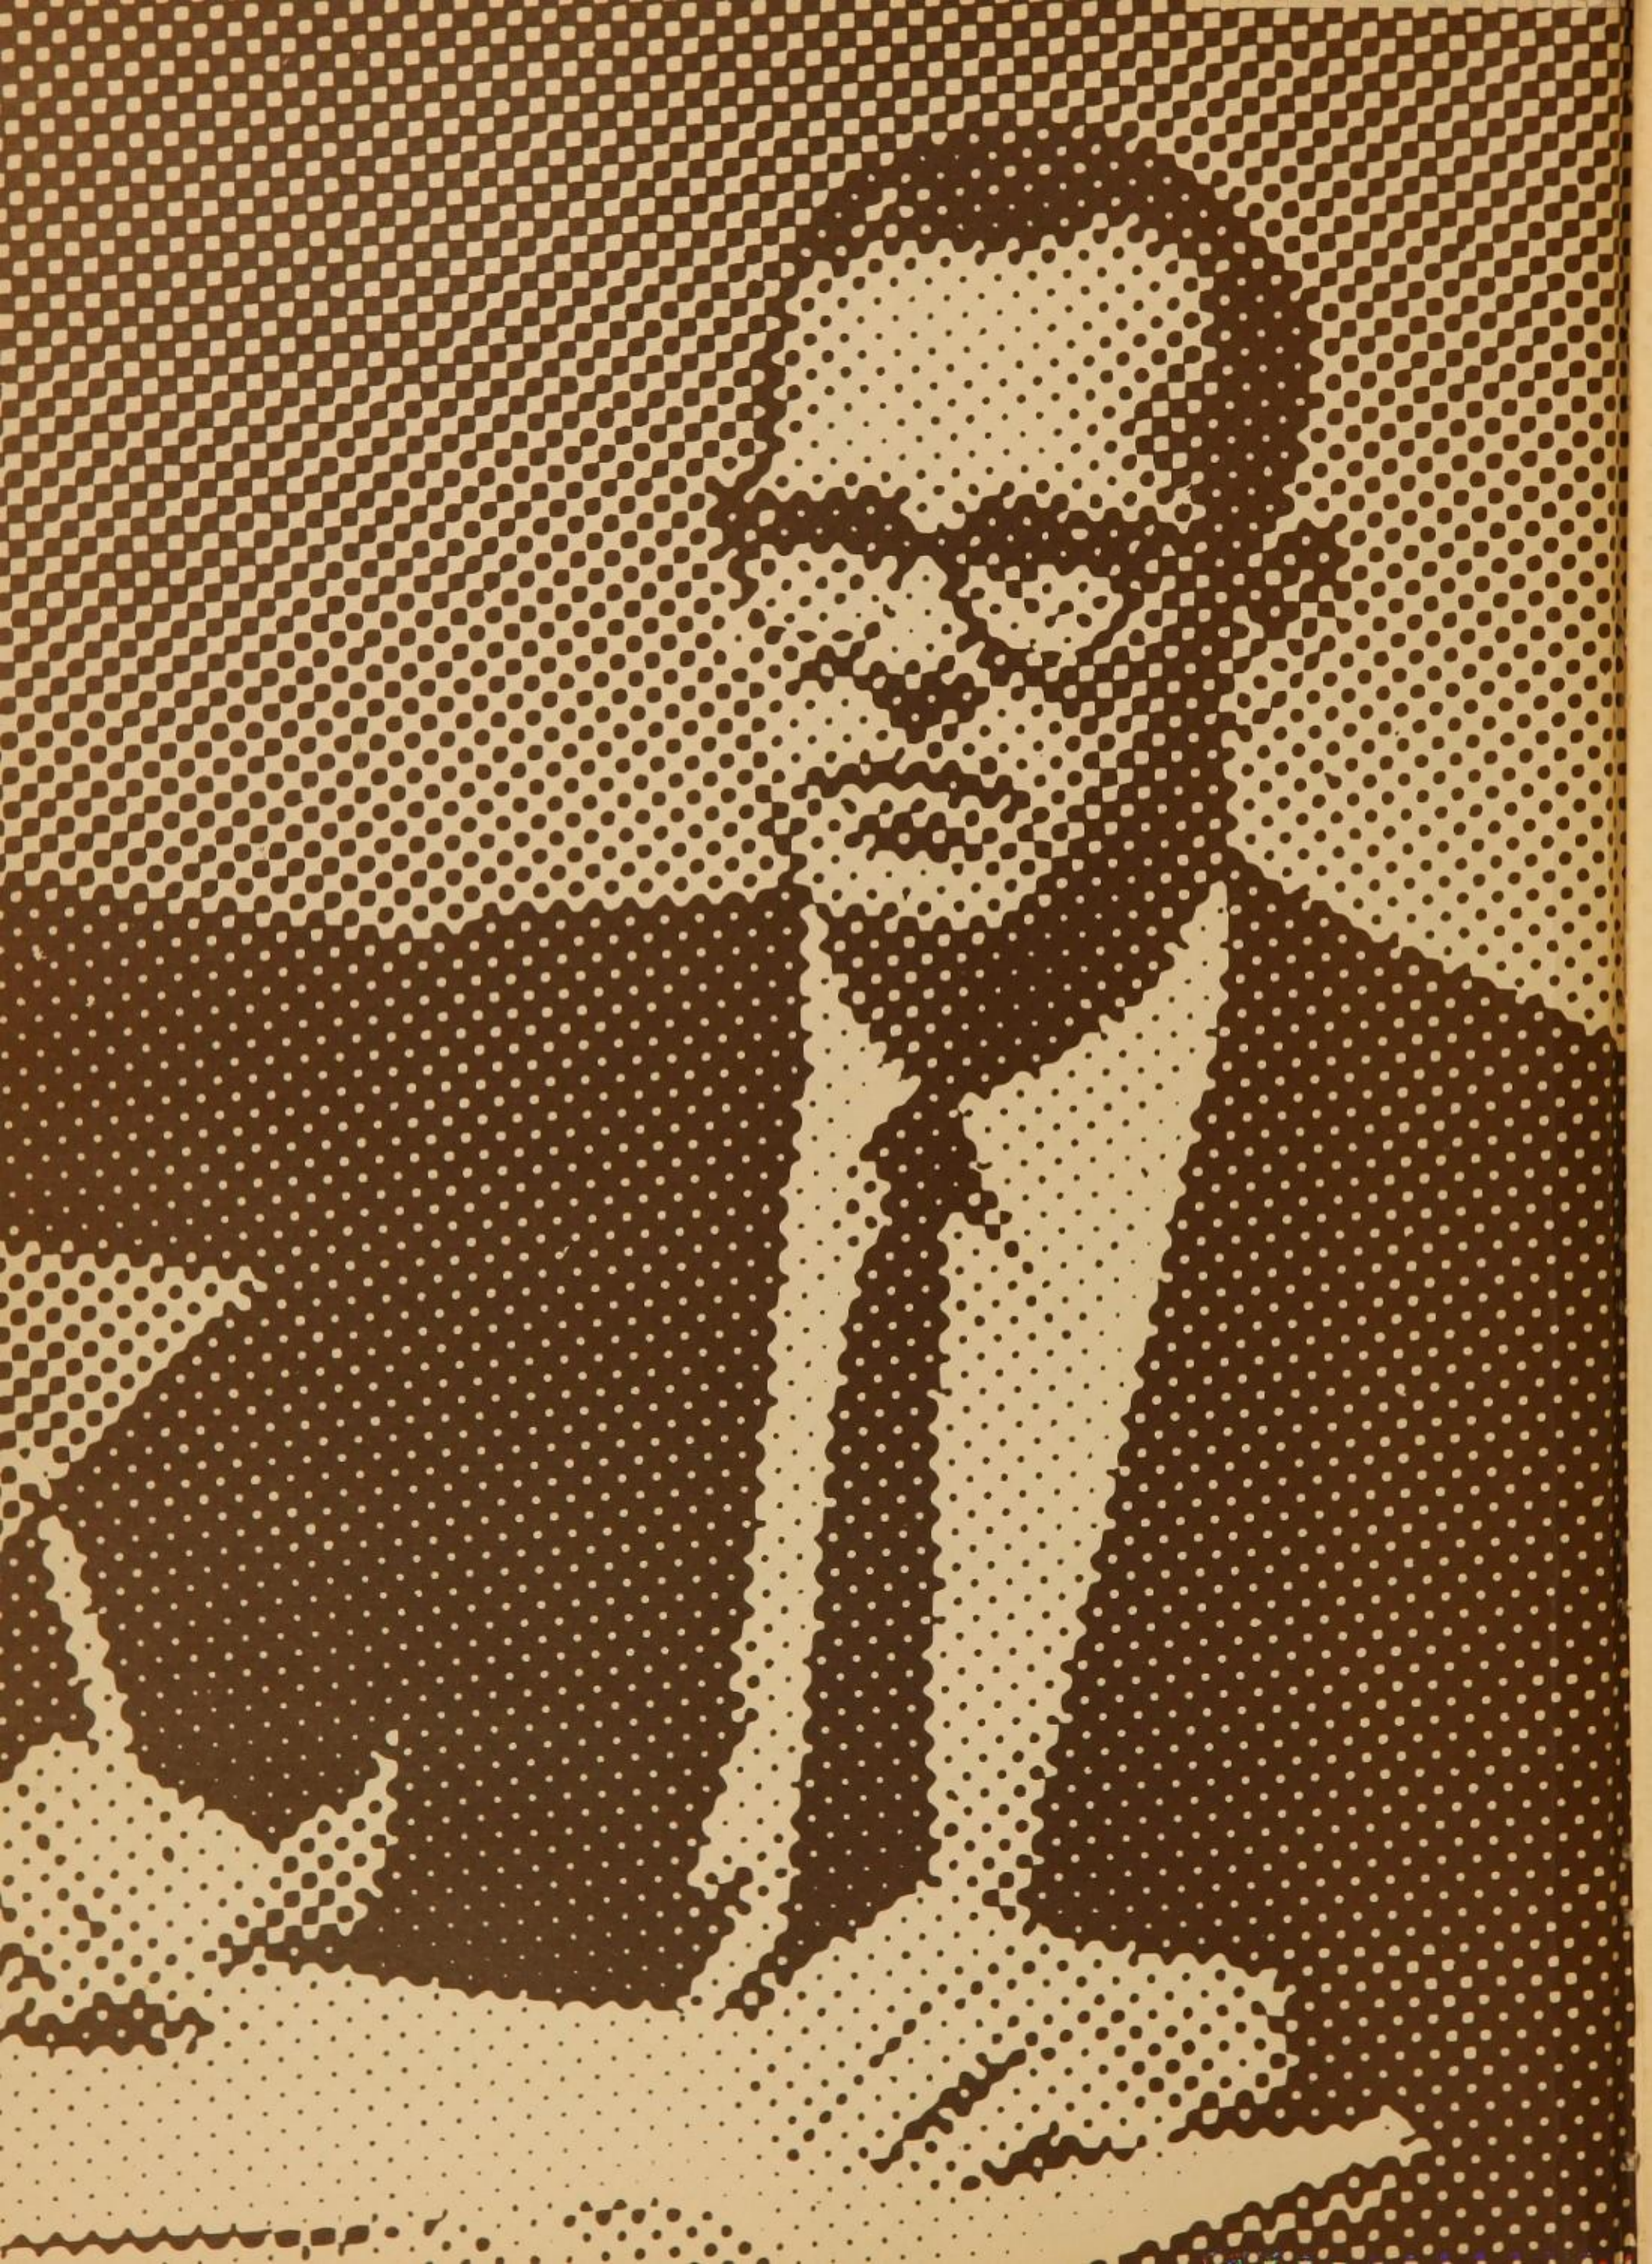
MIAMI CAROL CITY SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL



Miami Carol City's first principal, Charles S. Foster, Died Friday, November 8, 1968.

In Dedication

My name, and my place, and my tomb, forgotten.
The brief race of time, well and patiently run,
So let me pass away peacefully, silently,
Only remembered by what I have done.

PEOPLE

People*

People, people who need people
Are the luckiest people in the world.
We're children, needing other children
And yet, letting our grown up pride
Hide all the need inside,
Acting more like children, than children.
People who need people
Are the luckiest people in the world.

We need people, but when we're with them,
Are we together, united,
Bonded, committed, communing,
Striving ahead as a whole;
Single action unit of many Private minds

Or

Are we clustered, mobbed
Driven, mashed, crowded, pushed,
Grouped together as a herd;
Single passive unit of many Wasted lives?

Can we be the strong Effective ONE and still Continue in the unique
Beauty of being one?

Dear Ole Cousin Barb,

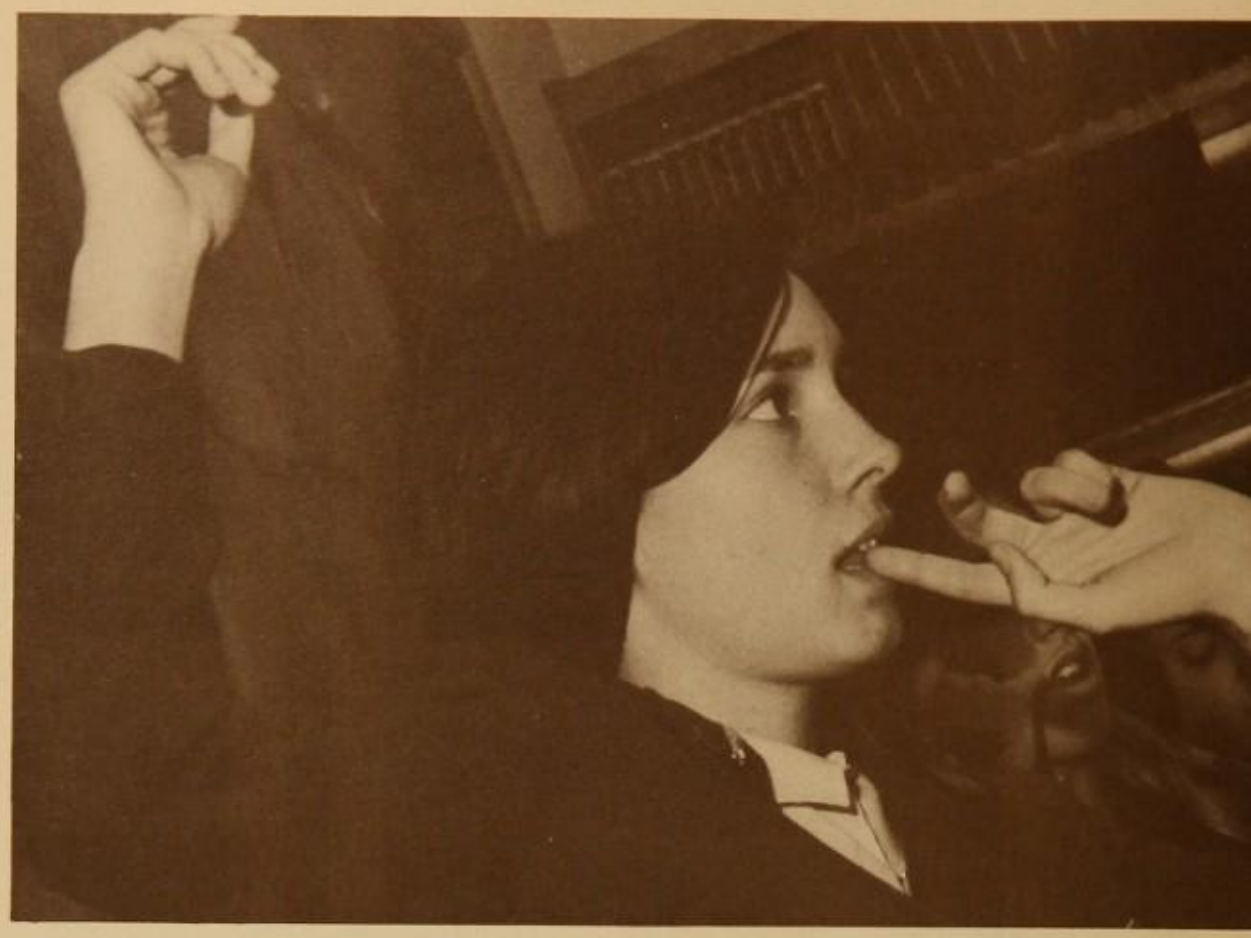
I can't believe that after only one more week we will really have "made it." It sure has taken a long time to work our way up from Dear Ole Mr. Bachaund's 7th grade homeroom. We've had a couple of bad times in school, Barb, but we've really had a lot of great times too. And the best times for me were when I was with you. I know I always complain about how much I hate school, but I'm really going to miss it.

I wish you the best of luck in the future, Barb. You know I really mean that. And I hope we can always stay as close to each other in the future as we have been in the past.

Love always,

"Cousin Kath"

"69"



I'm in here,
Really I am. I can be Seen many a time, in many an hour.
I'm revealed on the face, in the eyes,
In a voice and a moving hand.
The inner core, the real me,
The eternal I.
Today's spectator, tomorrow's Participant, sure I want to Help the world, but let me
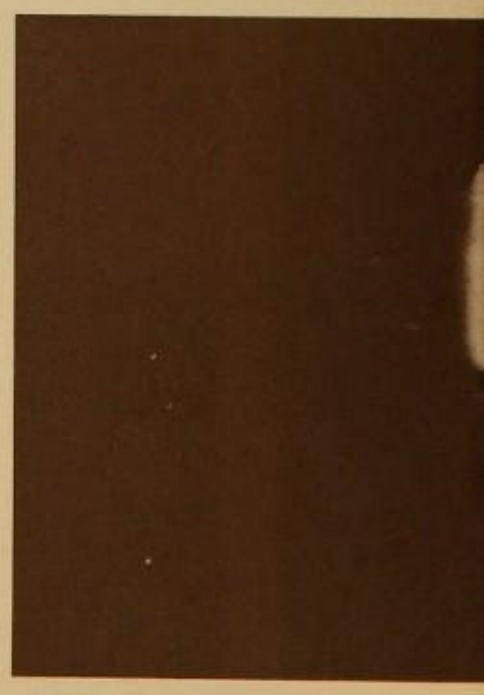
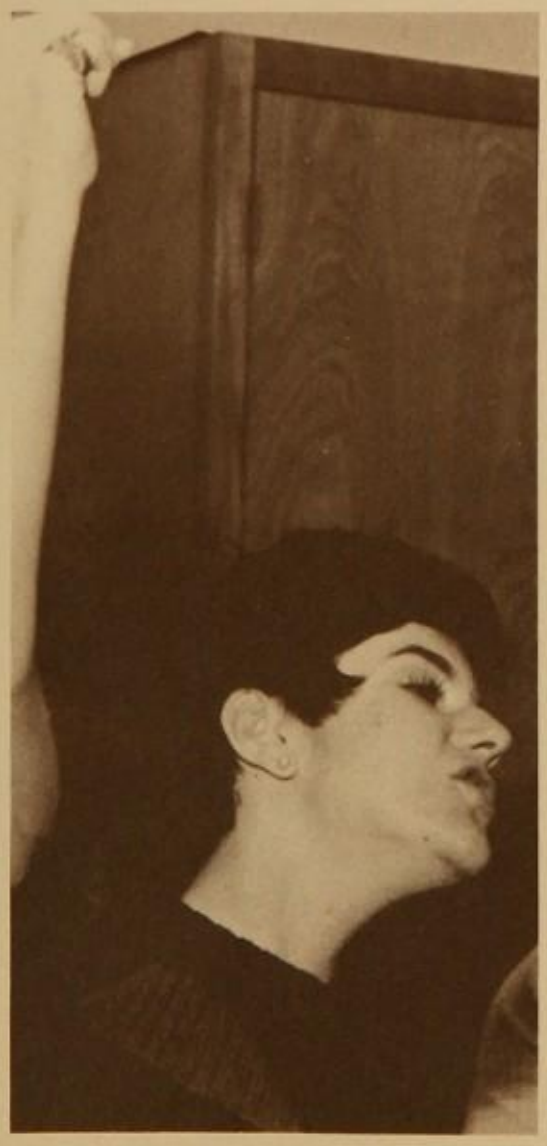
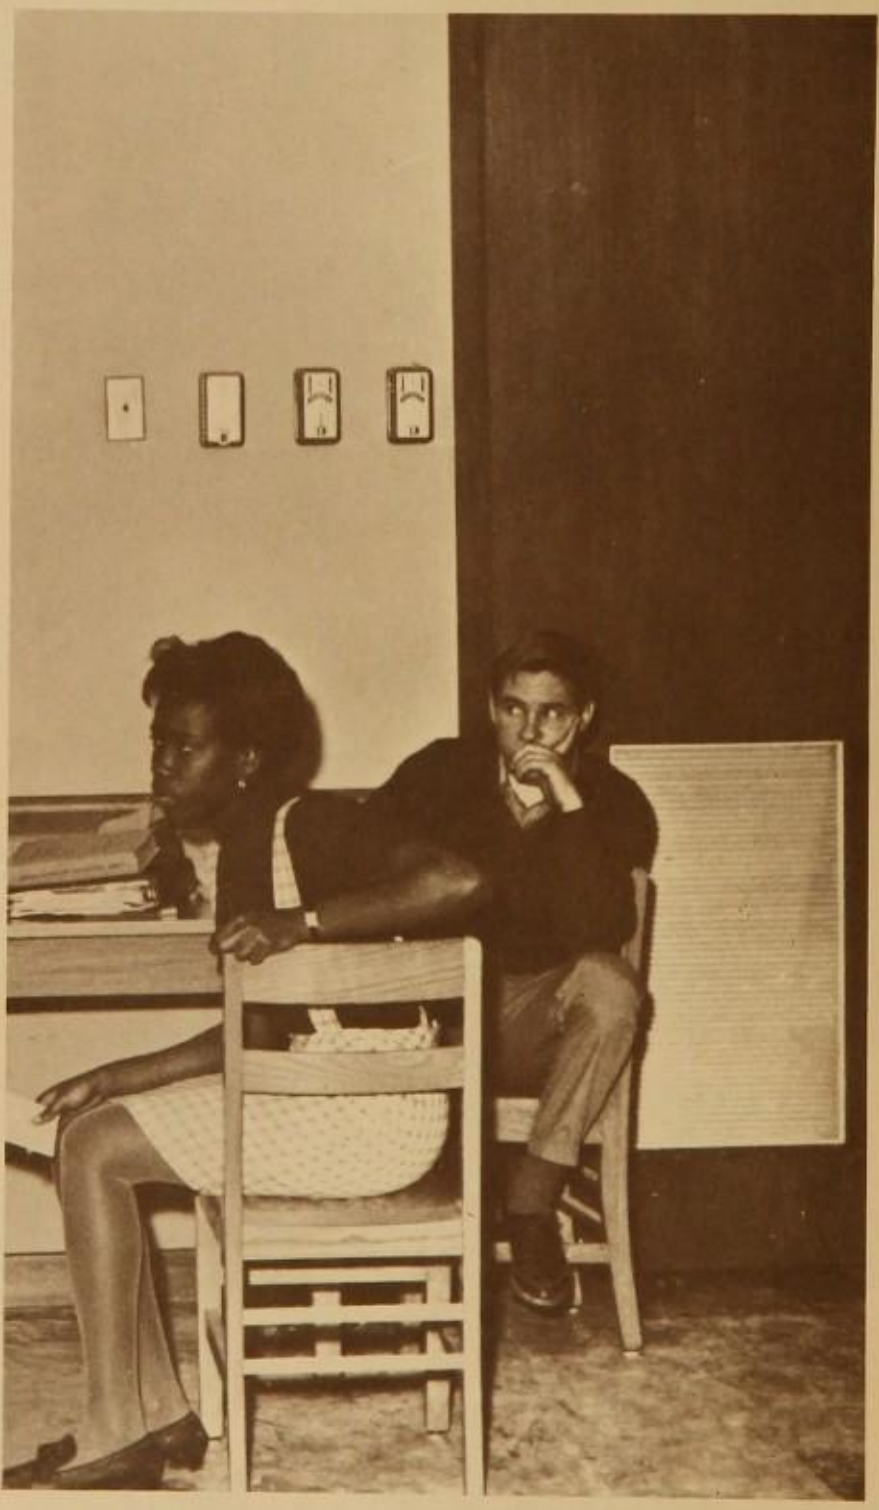
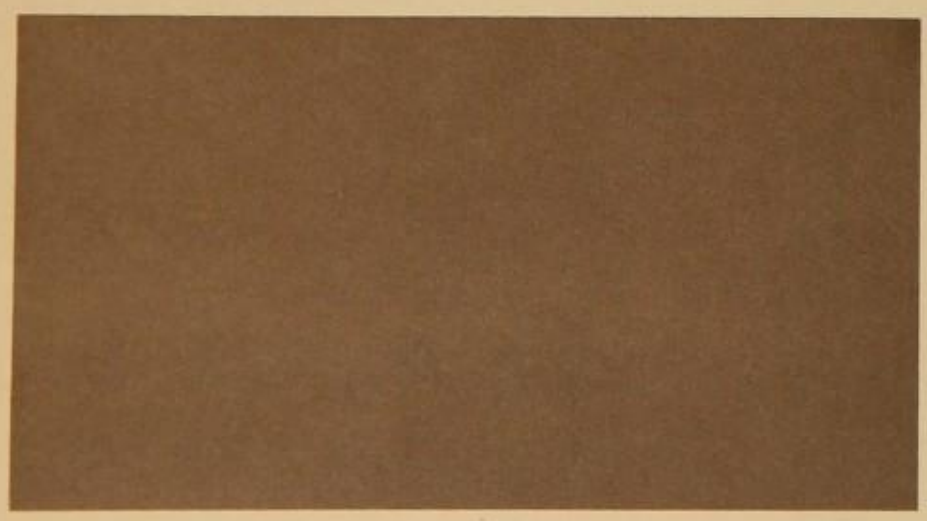
Learn to be myself
First.

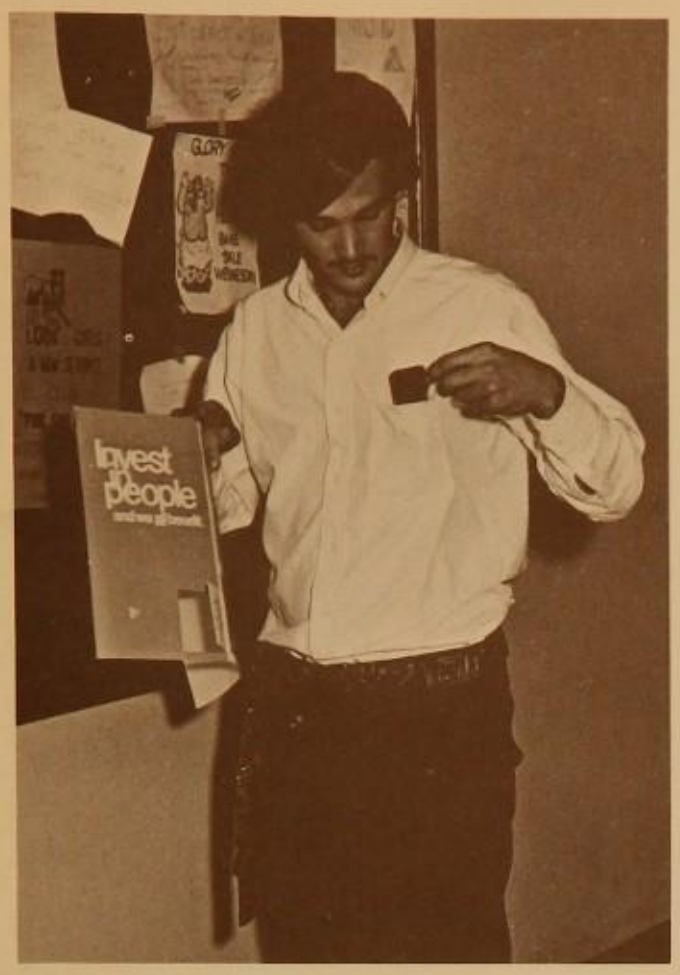


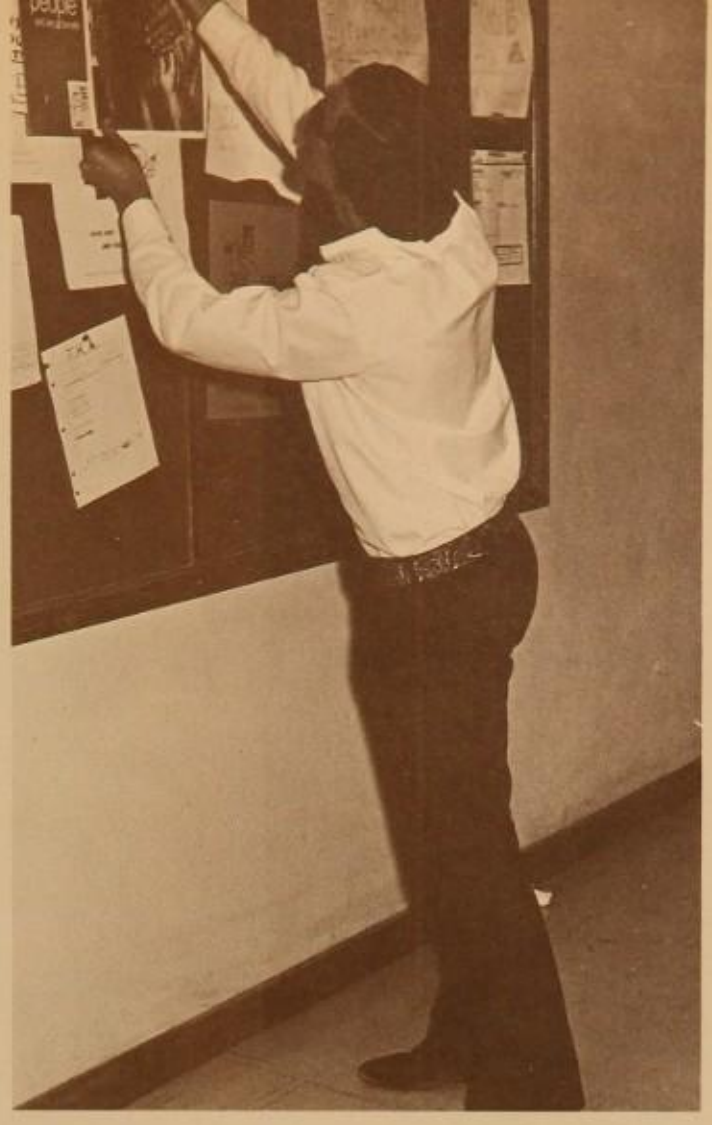


9









See us now, dancing, laughing,
Through the muddles, puddles,
Troubles of our day. Sweetly
Tripping, lightly skipping,
Ever ready to be on our way.
    Did you ever wonder where it is you're going?
        Is it so important that you can't stop for a moment and care?

Can you care about a number?
About L,T,11 or 6437 or 262-96-0707?
Is it helping a student To give him facts mass distributed by a loudspeaker?
Or is it taking the essence
Of his humanity away and Burying it
Beneath an inescapable avalanche
Of numbers?
We try to be individuals
And 'do our own thing'
But number codes and IBM cards
Don't help much Do they?

Who Am I*

The buildings reach up to the sky,
The traffic thunders on the busy street,
The pavement slips beneath my feet,
I walk alone and wonder WHO AM I.
I close my eyes then I can fly
And I escape from all this worldly strife
Restricted by routine of life,
But still I can't discover
WHO AM I.
I long to wake up in the morning and find everything has changed,
And all the people that I meet don't wear a frown
But every day is just the same
I'm chasing rainbows in the rain
All the dreams that I believe in let me down.
Maybe I'm reaching far too high
For I have something else entirely free,
The love of someone close to me
Unfettered by the world that hurries by,
To question such good fortune WHO

Tears, smiles, old friends, fond memories, great football, great Chiefs all bring to mind Miami Carol City's third annual Homecoming, held on November 27 and 28. The theme of Homecoming '68 was "If You're a Chief and Ya' Know It," CC's spirit surely showed it at all the Thanksgiving week-end activities. As the band struck up "Miss America" and the court was introduced, excitement mounted to a feverish pitch, which culminated in the crowning of Majorette Captain Nancy Lipman, escorted by Russell Dossey, as Queen of Homecoming '68. Linda Ward, Queen of our first Homecoming, and Dotsy Paquin were on hand, along with Savannah Allan, Linda Benson, Addie Chambers, Linda Cihi, Janet Dick, Ruth Kemp, Sylvia Johnson, Irene Larkin, Judy Meadows, Karen Wagner, and Cheryl Mitchell, all members of this year's Homecoming Court. Homecoming chairman was Florence Snyder.

SCARE THE YEAH

Give*

If you'd take the train with me
Up-town through the misery
Of ghetto streets in morning light,
They're always night,
Take a window seat, put down your Times,
You can read between the lines,
Just meet the faces that you meet
Beyond the window's pane.

And it might begin to teach you
How to give . . .
And it might begin to teach you
. . . about your fellow man.

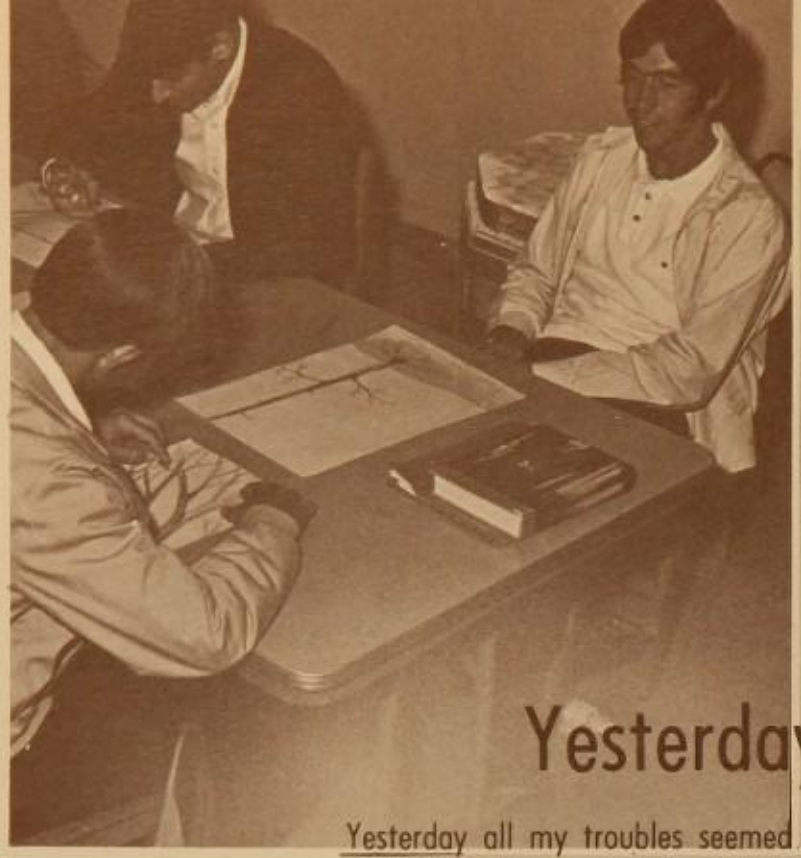
Pretty girls and football players pose for pictures which speak of the spirit of the football season – happiness, defeat, and a unity in the determination to win.

It's a Dickens of a Christmas

And then came Christmas with goldfish and candy canes. Santa Claus came with presents and the band and chorus with music and carols. And at home – a special tree.



Yesterday*

Yesterday all my troubles seemed so far away
Now it looks as though they're here to stay
Oh I believe in yesterday.
Suddenly I'm not half the man I used to be There's a shadow hanging over me
Oh yesterday came suddenly.
Why she had to go I don't know, she wouldn't say.
I said something wrong now I long for yesterday.
Yesterday, love was such an easy game to play
Now I need a place to hide away
Oh I believe in yesterday.

Old Friends*

Old Friends, Old Friends,
Sat on their park bench
Like bookends
A newspaper blown through the grass
Falls on the round toes
Of the high shoes
Of the Old Friends
Old Friends, winter companions,
The old men
Lost in their overcoats,
Waiting for the sunset.
The sounds of the city,
Sifting through trees, settle like dust
On the shoulders
Of the Old Friends.
Can you imagine us
Years from today,
Sharing a park bench quietly?
How terribly strange
To be seventy.
Old Friends, memory brushes the same years.
Silently sharing the same fears.

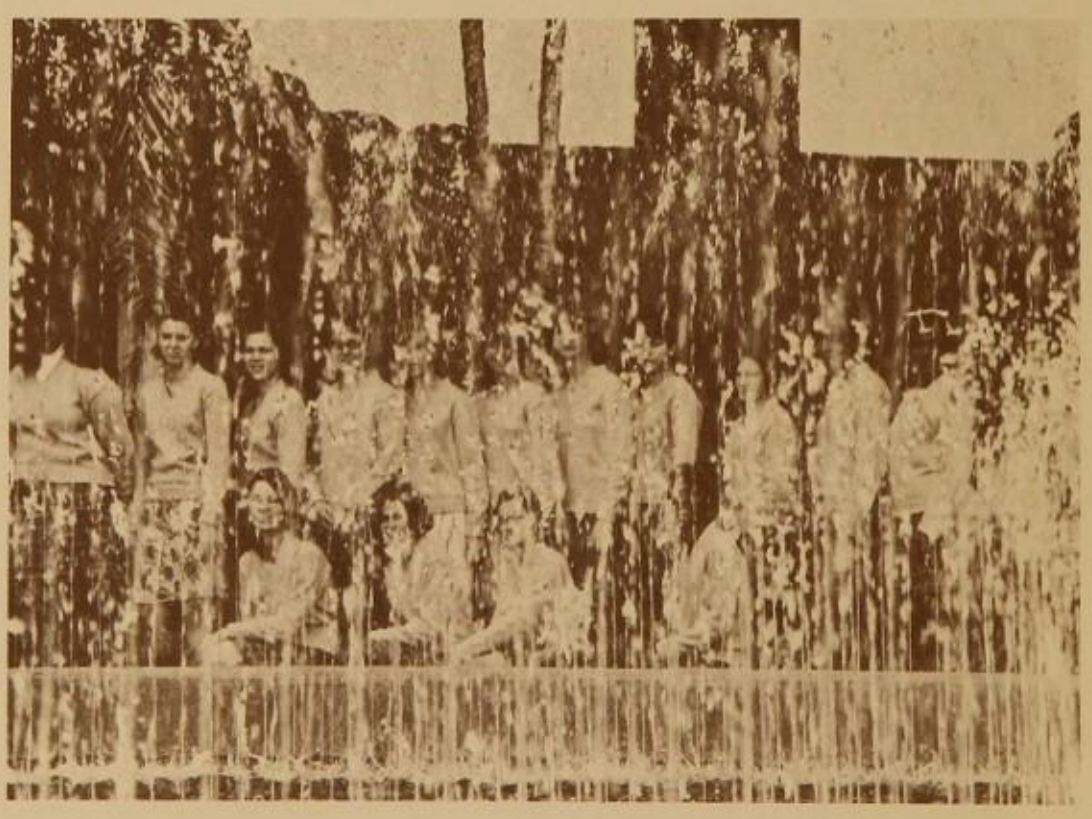
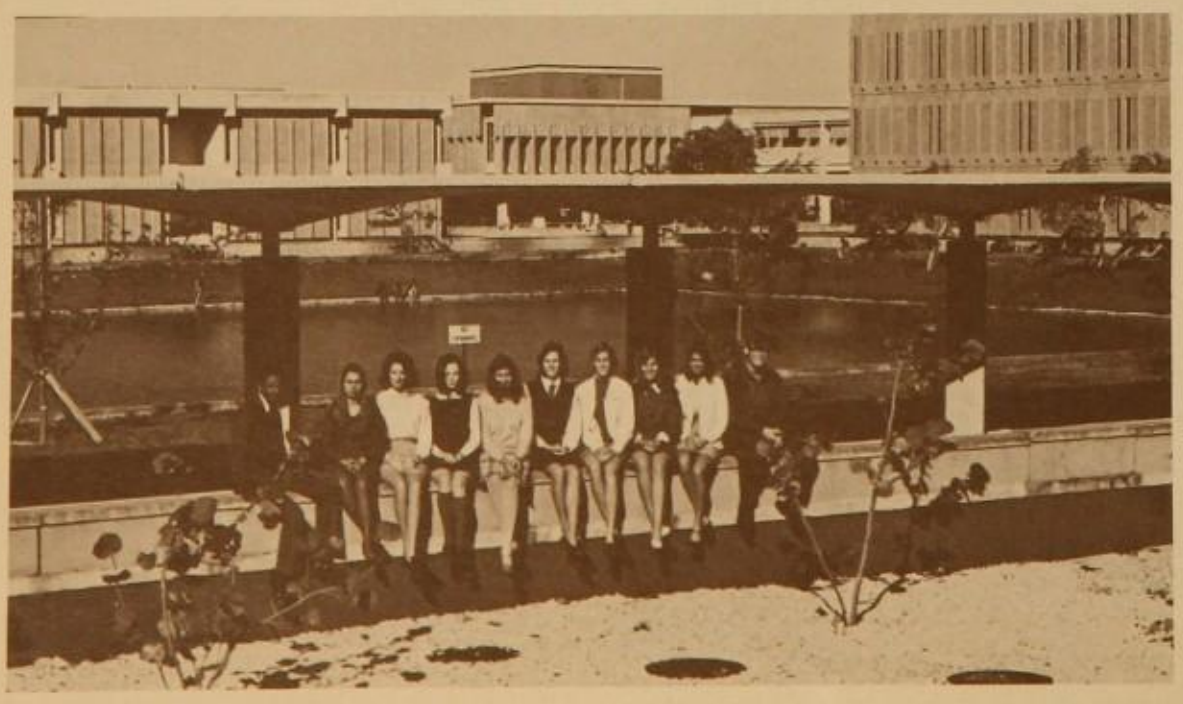
KEY COLO





Barb.
I really don't know what to say. I'm going to miss you. I guess these were a few personality conflicts at first, but I learned a lot from you. Most important except other people's judgement on things because its just as important as yours. Even if they differ. Its one hell of a strange world we live in. Each person thinks his way is right and that I guess makes up the different people. I think, in fact I know you a unique person. and I'm not just saying this because you have to be nice in Someone's year book Please believe that.

I hope you have a few memories that are fond ones I know I do
Love always
+May God bless you Cathy

Chiefs Battled Against Setbacks

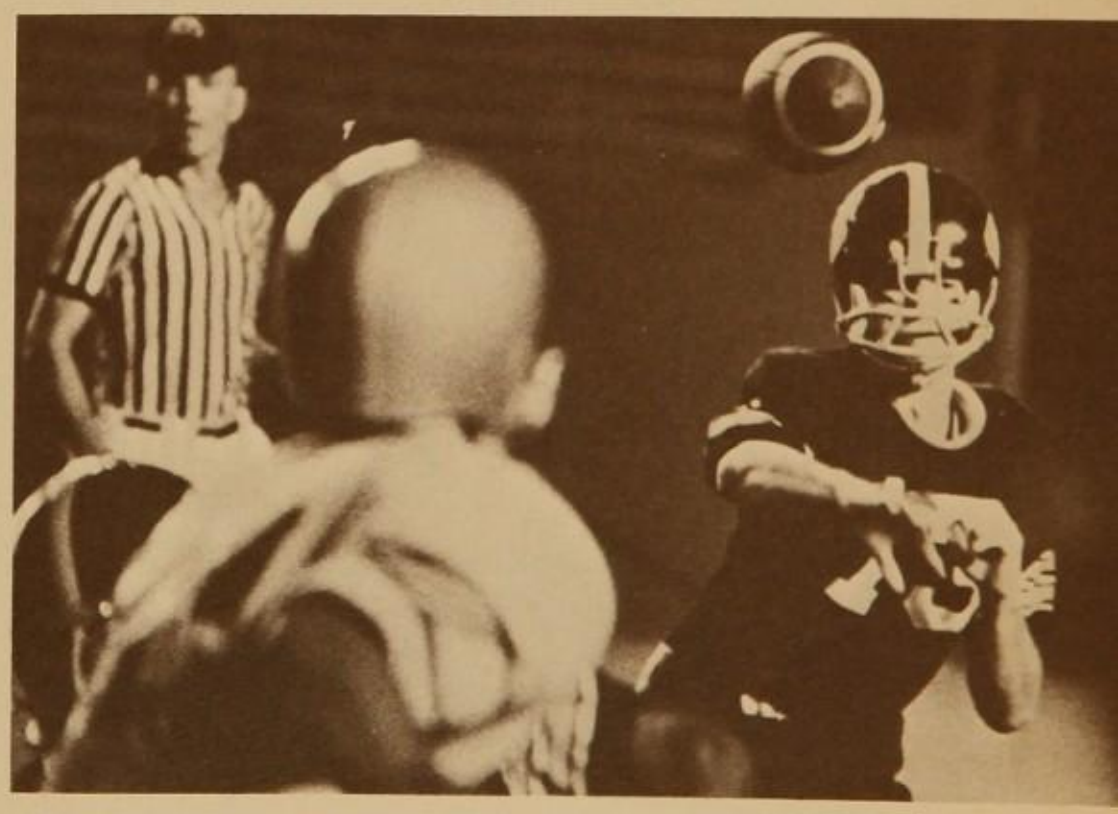
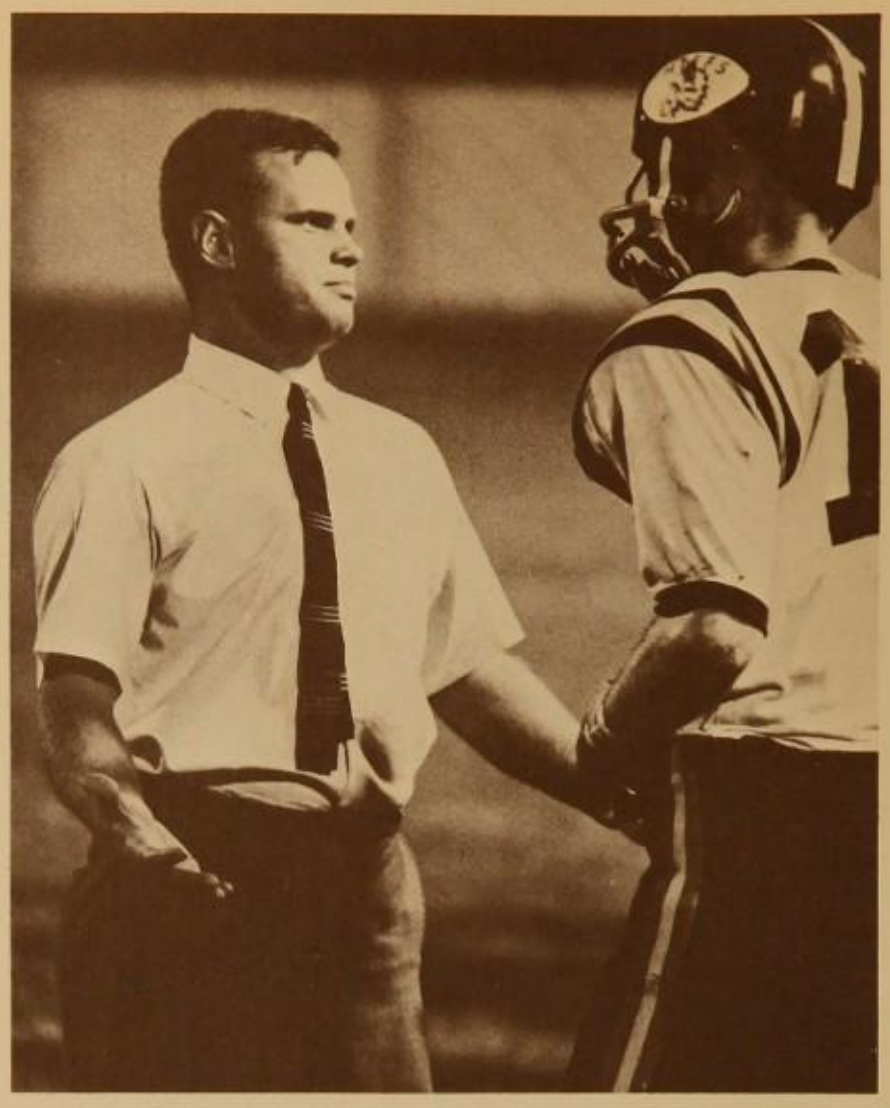
Jody Boudreau drives for yardage with Frank Johnson by his side against Mustangs.



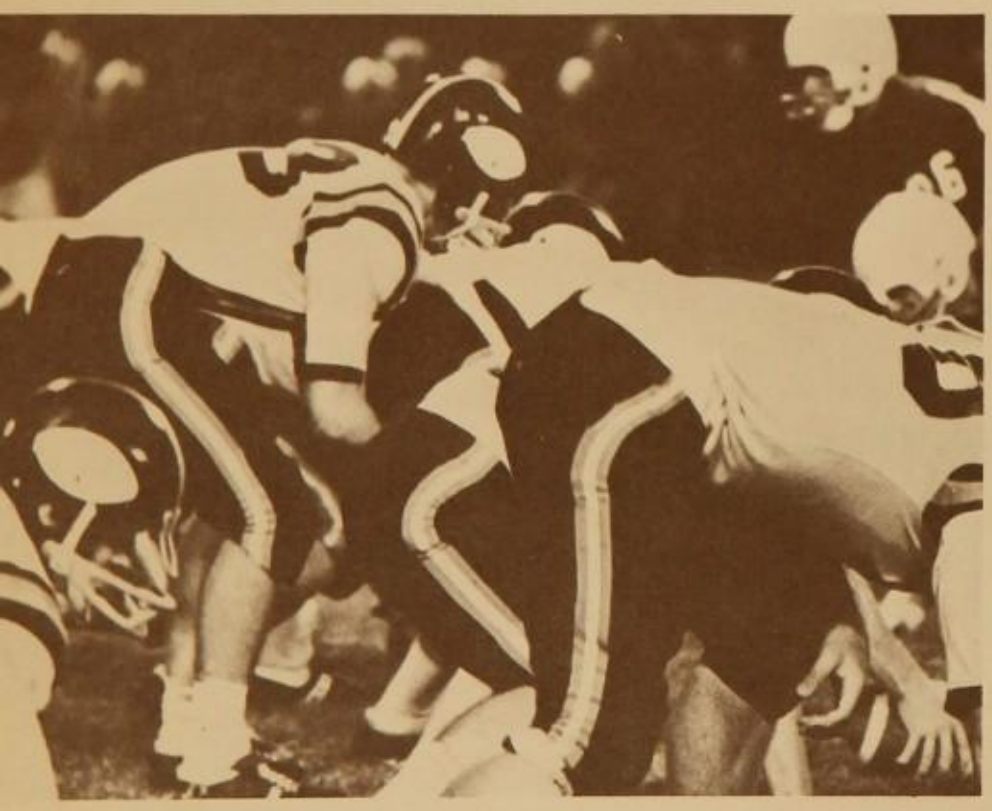
Quarterback Boudreau played a position through hardship and disappointment, but as the season went on, he gained experience and confidence.

C.C. Players Met To Challenge The Odds

The Carol City Chiefs '68 varsity football season began with losses and disappointments. With inexperience being a main setback to the team, long practice hours and determination were a necessity. Starting with a loss to Southwest, the Chiefs came back to edge McArthur 7-6 and paralyze the Bulls 15-6. After a few successful games, the C.C. players met consecutive losses and then managed to break the bad streak against Curley and Central. The Chiefs went on to end the season by tying with North Miami.



Offensive Coach Cave gives a few pointers to quarterback at Southwest game.



A formation, plan and . . .

Barb
We had a lot of fun
skipping with Mom
I'll remember the time you can over that snake?
I wish you the best of luck in all to come.
God bless,
Frank

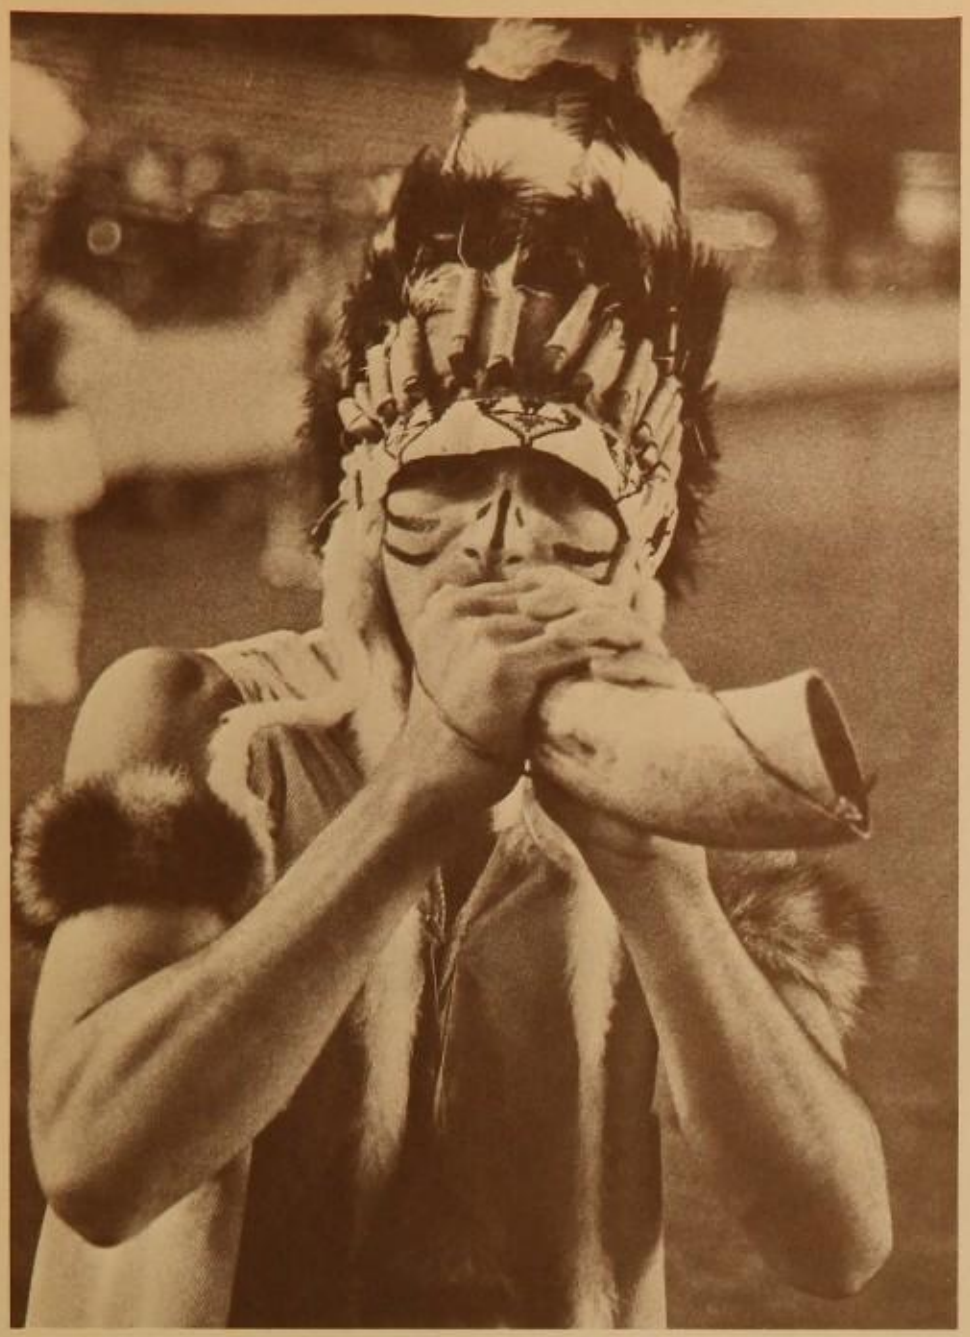
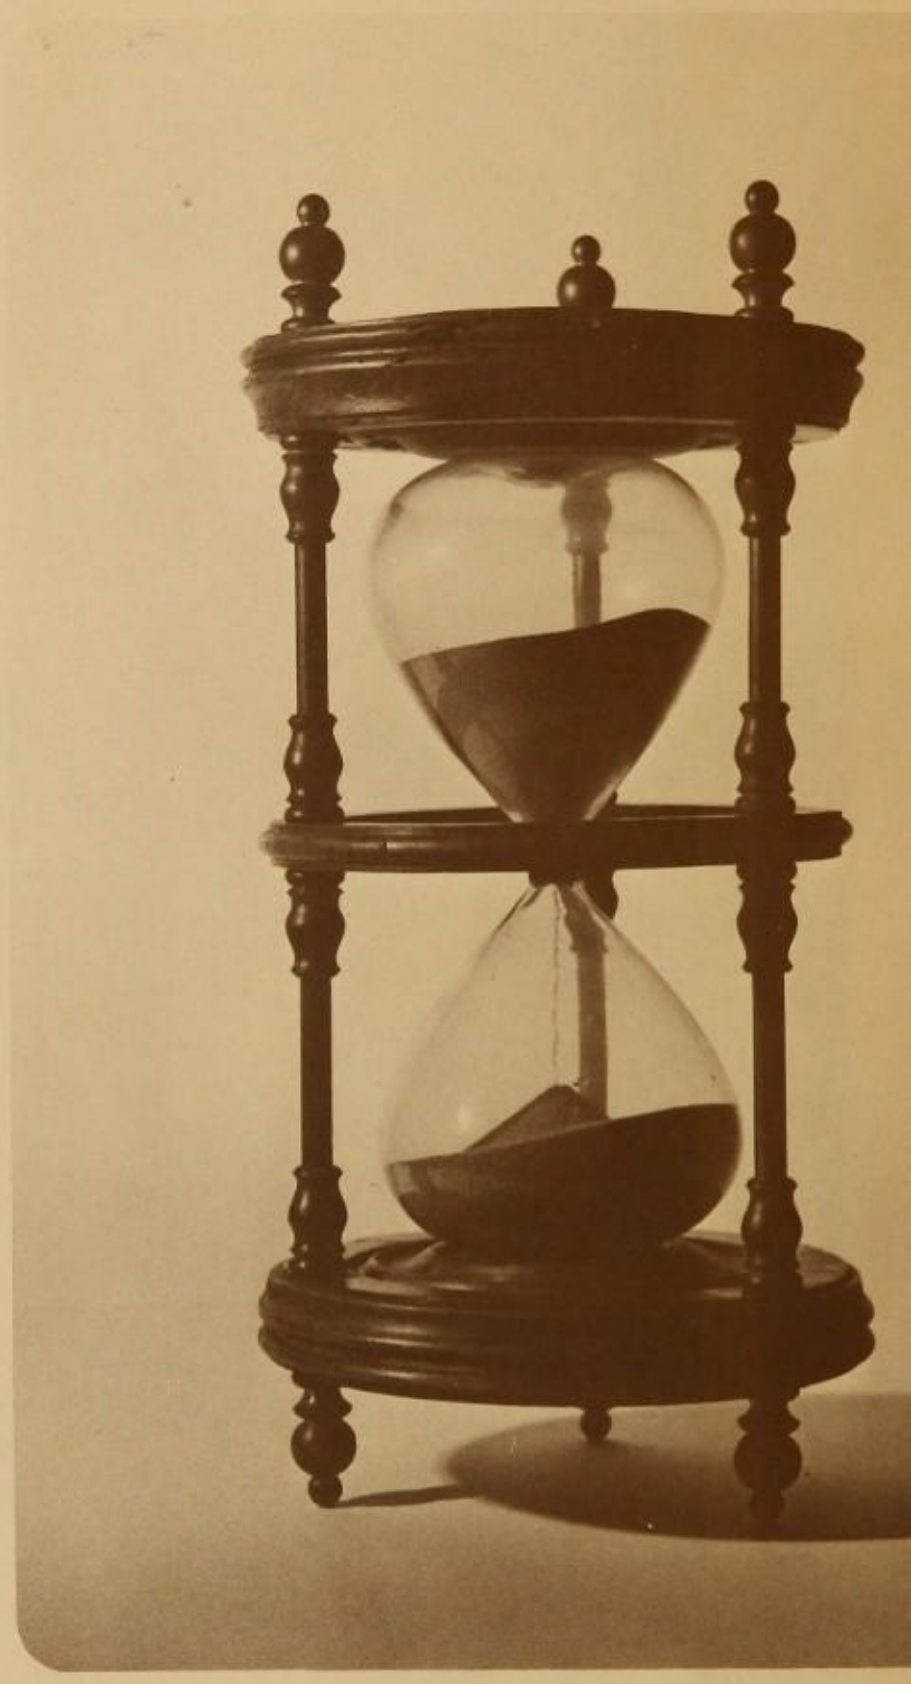
CHIEFS





CURRENT EVENTS

The thirty-seventh President and heir: In the cabinet room of the White House last July Lyndon Johnson met with the man who, last November 5 was elected to succeed him.

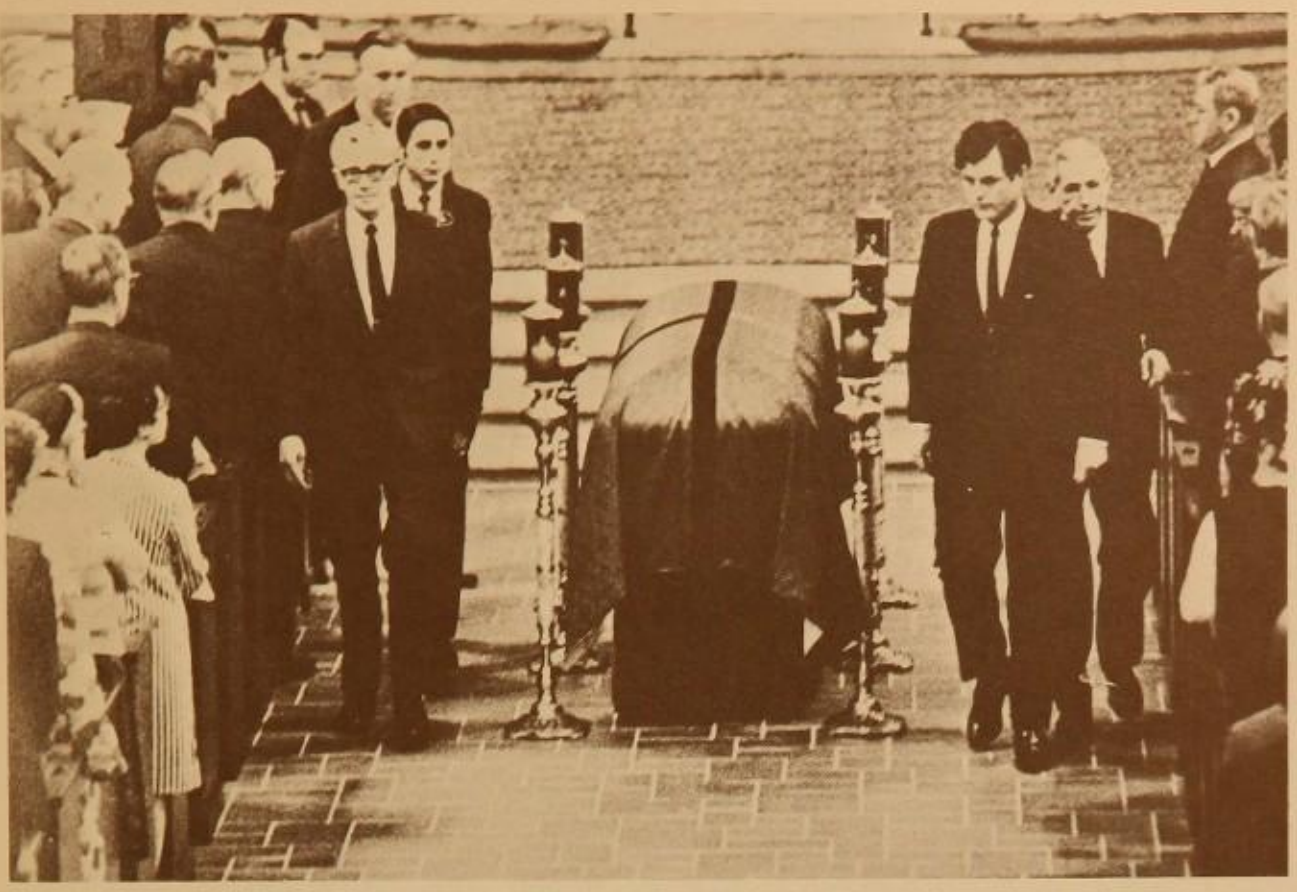
A Year Of Upsets

Humphrey is defeated in the presidential race and an unbelieving baby doctor is sentenced.

White-haired Dr. Benjamin Spock, godfather of a generation, brought his New Party to Miami. The goal is peace in Vietnam and time is the factor.

. . . His Interest Was In People

". . . The man – littered, literate, unique; waystop between a wild irreverence and a deep belief" – John Keasler . . . William Calhoun Baggs, editor of The Miami News, died Tuesday, January 7, 1969 of pneumonia.

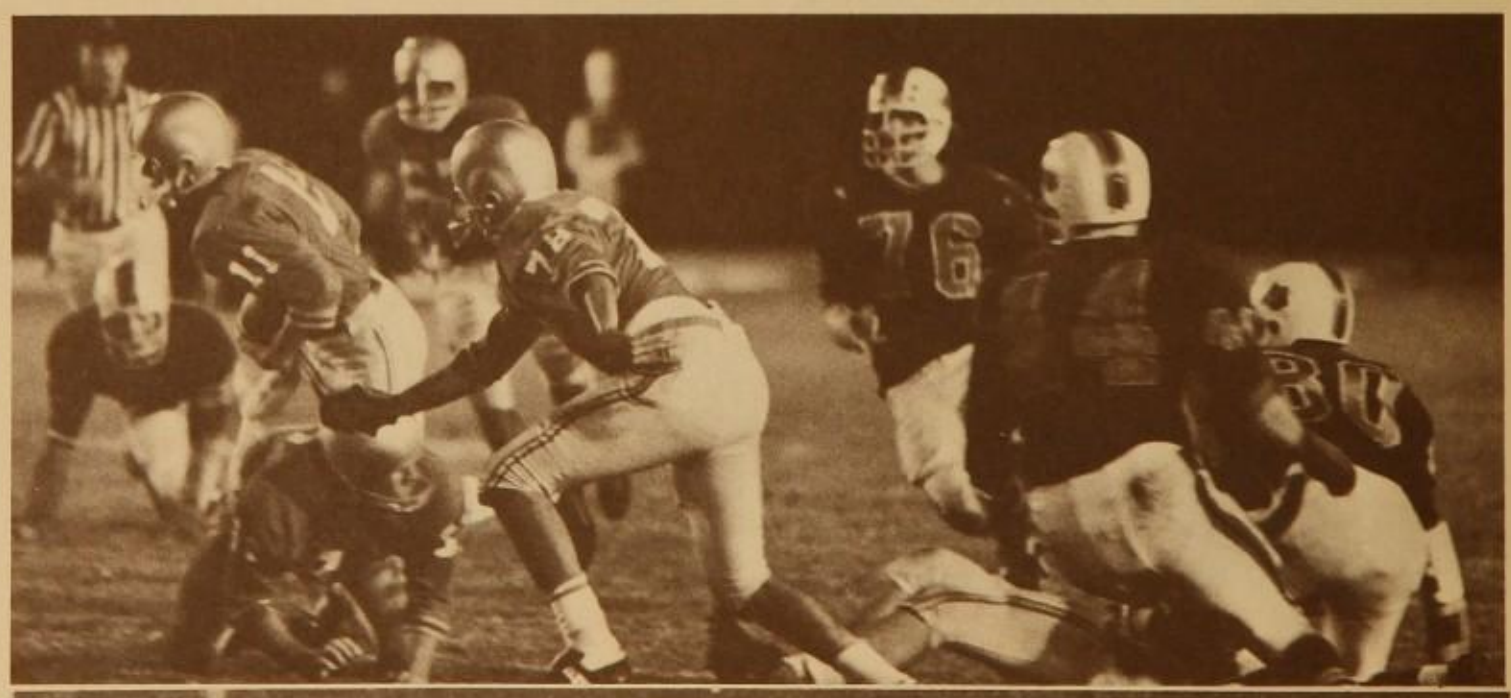


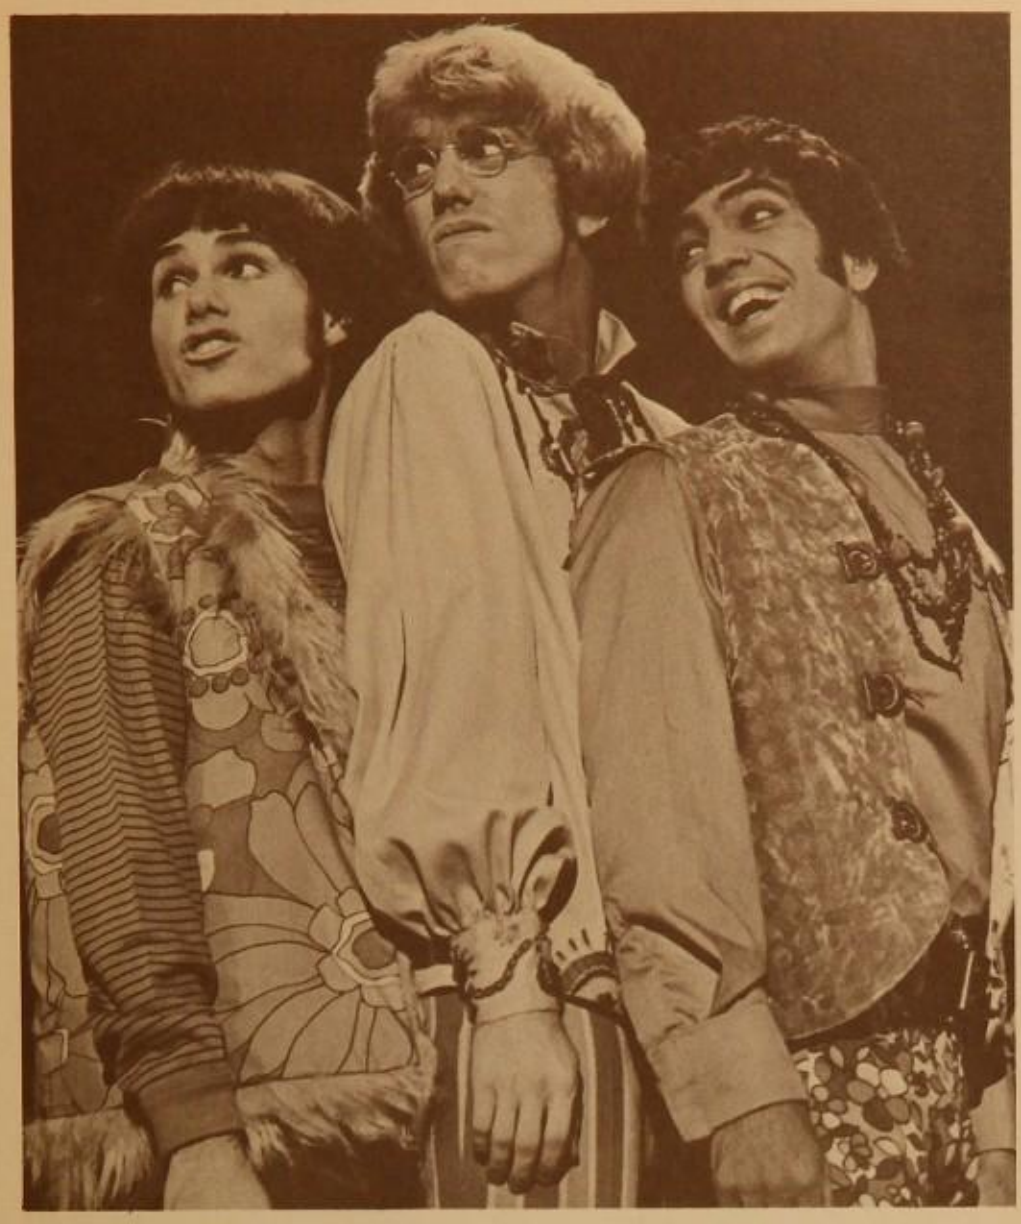
Sen. Ted Kennedy, right, and Ex-Gov. LeRoy Collins leads pallbearers from church; James Cox follows Kennedy.

Sign Of The Times

Christmas, football share the Florida scene. Gables' Benitez rolls out for the touchdown of the year, – a TD worth the state title. Coral Gables repeated its state championship over Jacksonville Wolfson, 7-6 retaining South Florida's possession of Florida's biggest football prize.

Florida-FSU Action: the ball goes to All-American Ron Sellers who just misses as Florida takes the annual football classic 9-3.



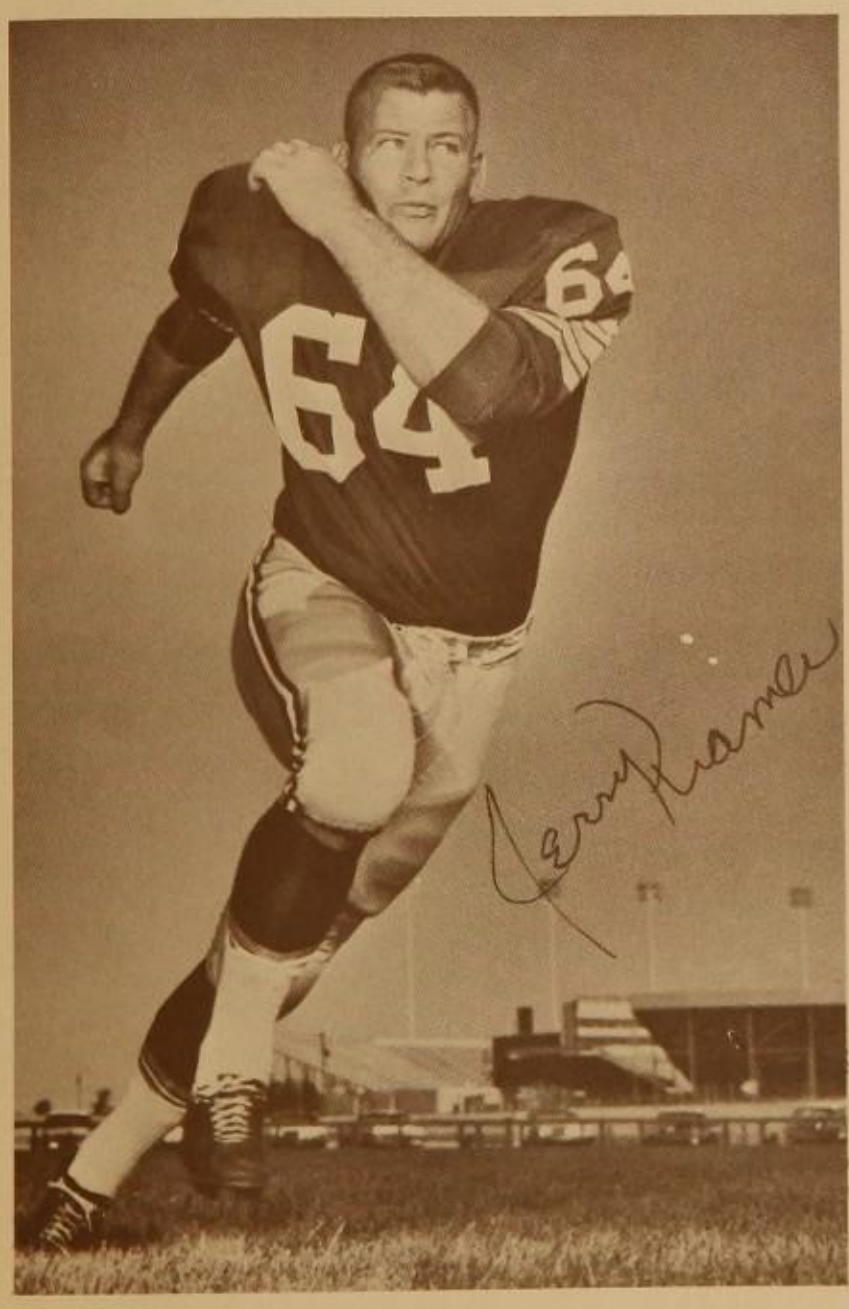


The Cavaliers burst upon Florida's school football scene as "Your Own Thing" equally rocked Miami's play goers – neither will be soon forgotten.

". . . so much glass, so much steel."

Alumna, Barbara Jo Rubin, 19, and Stoneland, 4, seemed to understand each other.

The Pack Will Be Back!



Vince Lombardi will be re-reading Jerry Kramer's best-seller, Instant Replay, for memories from 1265 Lombardi Avenue after he moves from Wisconsin to Washington.

Robert Mackle comforts daughter Barbara Jane at Miami Heart Institute.

And Florida makes headlines with a kidnapping case, a Teacher of the Year Award, and a candidate for N.E.A. Presidency.

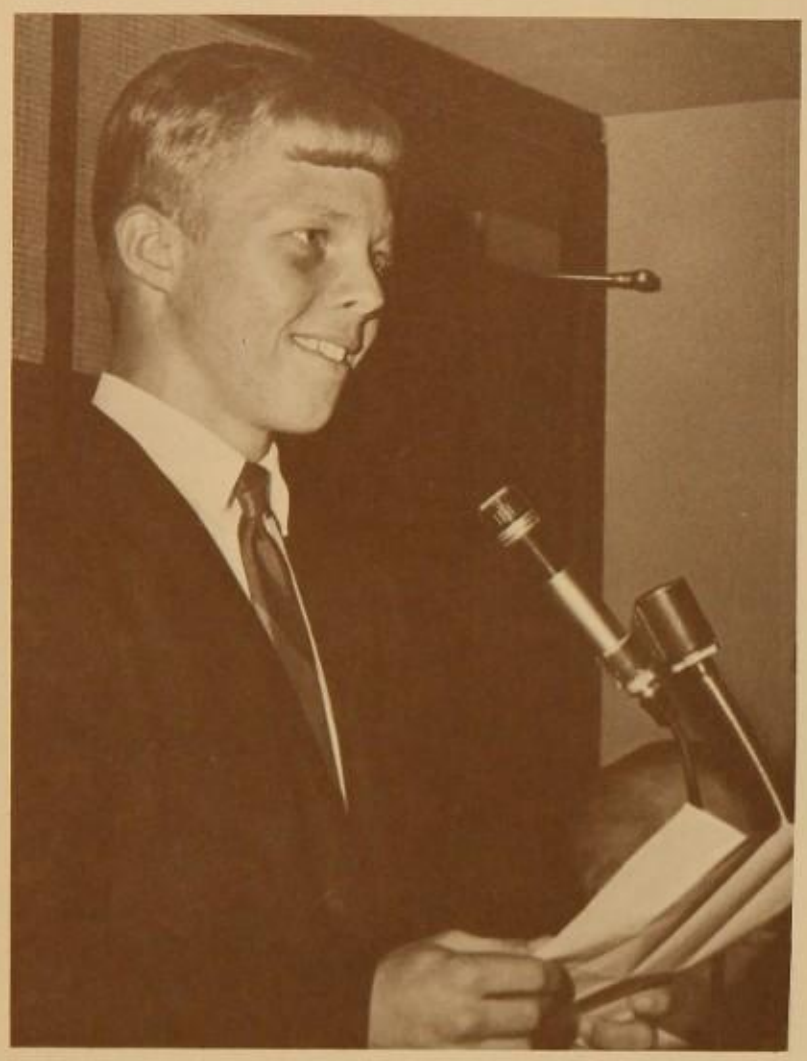
FSU alumna and Kappa Delta, an English teacher at Jackson, Miss Barbara Goleman, is Florida's teacher of the year.

Former Miami Carol City Junior High drama teacher, Janet Dean, learns to live with power in her drive to take N.E.A. directorship.

M.C.C. Award Winners —



Bruce Frendahl, award winning essayist.

Ralph Partridge, top speaker in Florida.

Annetta Koonce, VFW oratory winner.

LBJ congratulates presidential scholar David Evans who earned a scholarship to M.I.T.

Award winning speakers Ralph Partridge, Fred Sharfstein, and Larry Jones.

CONCLUSION

Vagabonds of the mind, we wander; our syncopated thoughts grasping at the median strip, and we will find it, for we are haptic beings, and have no choice but to prevail.

Barbara,
This has truly been the most wonderful year in my entire life! In the beginning, our relationship was likened to a roller coaster ride. But now I realize that all the sleepless nights have proven to be well worth every effort. I hope you keep me around the rest of your life. I'm quite sure we could find much happiness in a "your" large house in Conn. I've always been jealous and I always will be. I'm sorry you don't like it, but that's me. Remember also, I'll always love you no matter what. K? Good luck on your new job and with all the other obstacles you may encounter, with or without me.

I love you with all my heart and soul,

Your loving man,

Larry

Dear Barb,

Gosh, I don't sure to start; Well let's seen this year we've become so close that I know Love loved you as a sister and always do. I've had the most wonderful time in my whole life with you and Larry. You've have to part and believe me we'll always be place in my heart for my adoptive sister. Well I know to sorry to miss you very much and wish I'd just moved to remember you and hope you can come. I know for a summer Cuban love ya. Remember all the pictures in Blanco's class Vegas chats see never regret this year. Always be you ever need any help I'm always you always.

but I still and what about remember that I'm may God bless and keep Affectionately Mario & Julian
